Happy New Year from The Waterford at Wilderness Hills

As we welcome the New Year, we want to thank you for the trust you place in us. Choosing a memory care community for your loved one is a meaningful decision, and we are honored to partner with you.

To support clear and ongoing communication, we will be implementing Family Care Plan Meetings every 60 days, or sooner if there is a change in your loved one's condition. These meetings allow us to review care plans, discuss progress, address questions, and ensure your loved one's needs are being met.

Our goal is to ensure you feel confident that your loved one is truly known, supported, and cared for in the way you hoped when choosing The Waterford at Wilderness Hills.

We look forward to working closely with you in the year ahead and wish you and your family a Happy, Healthy New Year. ❤️

A team member will be reaching out to you in the upcoming week to confirm your availability and schedule a care plan meeting.

Meet Our Activities Director

My name is Kelly Orosco, and I was born and raised in Lincoln, Nebraska, a community that shaped my values of compassion, connection, and service. I bring over 13 years of experience in healthcare, where I've developed a strong passion for supporting others through attentive, patient-centered care. I take pride in building meaningful, trusting relationships and strive to make a positive difference in the lives of those I serve each day.

Throughout my career, I've found fulfillment in advocating for others, offering support during challenging moments, and helping create environments where people feel respected, heard, and cared for. Healthcare is more than a profession to me—it's a calling rooted in empathy, teamwork, and a commitment to improving quality of life.

Outside of work, I enjoy staying active and spending time outdoors. I'm an enthusiastic sports fan and proudly support the Nebraska Cornhuskers and the Green Bay Packers. Above all, I'm a proud mom to my 7-year-old son, who inspires me daily and brings so much joy to my life.

I'm excited to begin my journey at Waterford and look forward to building strong connections, contributing positively to the community, and growing both personally and professionally as part of the team.
